

The DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

(Editor's Note: The Brass Ring is "good for one free ride on The Washington Merry-Go-Round." Winner of this honor today is Senator Charles L. McNary of Oregon, Republican floor leader of the U. S. Senate.)

Washington—The voice of the Senate opposition to the Supreme Court reform bill is the strident raucous bellow of Wheeler, Vandenberg, Burke, et al.

But the brains of the opposition rests with a slender, self-effacing gentleman who, as far as the public knows, is as remote from the scene of battle as the North Pole. He is Charles L. McNary, senior senator from Oregon, and floor leader of the Republican forces in the Senate.

Throughout the five months of maneuvering and committee tussling over the Supreme Court, McNary not once has appeared in the forefront. Yet behind the scenes he has been the master mind of the fight against the President.

The anti never have made a major move without consulting him, and Senator Wheeler, their titular generalissimo, holds on to McNary's coat-tails like a child to its mother's apron-string.

Friend and Foe
It was McNary who conceived the brilliant strategy of keeping the Republicans in the background and letting the Democrats attack Roosevelt. It was McNary who conceived the motion to refer the Logan compromise bill back to committee, thus giving wobbly Democrats a chance to vote against the President and yet have an alibi to justify their action.

And it was McNary who has been telling the limelight-seeking anti in blunt, single-syllable terms what fools they are to play into Roosevelt's hands by threatening a filibuster.

Even administrationists ruefully admit that the greatest asset of the opposition is in protracted duel with the President has been the counsel and leadership of the senator from Oregon. They also concede that he is the biggest asset the Republican party has in Capitol Hill.

Strangely enough, G. O. P. diehards sometimes indulge in behind-the-hand muttering against McNary because he doesn't rant and rave against the New Deal. They can't forgive him for keeping his skirts clear of the Landon-Knox ticket and tending his own knitting. But what they forget is that in an election that saw Republicans felled over like tenpins, Charles McNary defeated a powerful Democratic opponent and returned to Washington to continue as leader of his party's ranks in Congress.

Un-Political
In appearance and manner there is nothing of the politician about Charles McNary.

He rarely makes a speech, never indulges in forensics, has no caluses from breast-thumping. He is one of the most approachable, even-tempered and best-liked men in Washington. The President and administration leaders regard his judgment so highly and trust him so completely that on occasion they even go to him for advice.

McNary looks like the popular conception of a youthful big business executive. He is slender, tanned, and nattily attired, his step has the spring of an outdoor man, and his eyes have the mischievous twinkle of a boy.

McNary got into politics by way of an appointment to the Oregon state Supreme Court.

He worked his way through Leland Stanford as a fellow-student of Herbert Hoover by waiting on table. It is his proud claim that he still can carry more dishes on one arm than most waiters. After practicing law a few years he joined the faculty of Willamette university, later becoming dean of its law college.

In 1913 McNary as named to the Oregon Supreme Court by a Democratic Governor and hung up a distinguished and liberal record. Four years later he was appointed to the Senate by a Republican Governor to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Harry Lane, who with Senator George Norris and the elder Bob La Follette was one who waged the historic battle of the "little group of wilful men" against the American entrance into the World War.

Independent
Throughout his 20 years in the Senate, McNary, while a regular in party politics, has followed an independent course on legislation. He has repeatedly lined up with the progressives on economic issues and has voted for a number of New Deal measures.

Because of his friendship with the liberals he was delegated by the Harding managers at the Chicago convention in 1920 to offer the vice presidency to Senator Hiram Johnson.

SCANT HOPE OF FINDING LOST AMELIA TODAY

Lexington And Its Brood of Planes Last Resort

BULLETIN
San Francisco, July 10—(AP)—George Palmer Putnam, husband of Amelia Earhart, planned to leave here late today for his North Hollywood home, there to receive further reports on the search for his wife.

"It isn't that I have given up hope that Miss Earhart and her navigator, Fred J. Noonan, will be found," he said. "It's just that I feel there is nothing more I can do here."

"Miss Earhart's mother is at my home and I thought I should be with her."

Putnam, who will be accompanied by his son, Davis, 24, arranged with Lieutenant Frank Johnson, Coast Guard communications officer here, to receive reports of the widespread search.

By The Associated Press
Honolulu, July 10—Three navy planes were ordered catapulted over the main group of the Phoenix islands today in a search which naval officers said probably would reveal whether Amelia Earhart is still alive.

The battleship Colorado's searching planes, shooting into the air at 11:30 a. m., C. S. T., were directed to sweep over Enderbury, Phoenix, Birnie and Sydney islands.

Shore patrols from the minesweeper Swam were ordered to comb Canton, largest of the Phoenix islands, while the planes sought other possible refuges of Miss Earhart and Fred Noonan, navigator of her round-the-world plane, missing eight days.

The two ships set a rendezvous 15 miles south of Canton at 3:30 p. m., C. S. T., to refuel the minesweeper. The Colorado's planes may then survey Canton from the air.

If these searches do not reveal trace of the missing aviators, naval officers said there was scant hope of their being found in the projected search by 62 planes from the aircraft carrier Lexington, now speeding toward tropic waters from Hawaii.

The Colorado steamed north today. The cost guard cutter Itasca continued parallel to the Equator in a methodical search southward.

Cover 140,000 Miles
These three vessels and three planes already in the search have covered an area estimated at more than 140,000 square miles since the aviator vanished near Howland island.

Peter Wragg Died at Home this Morn

Peter Wragg, age 84, died at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Sproul, 506 East McKinney street, at 11:40 A. M. today, after a brief illness.

Funeral services will be held at 2 P. M. Monday at the home and at 2:30 P. M. at the First Christian church, the Rev. J. A. Barnett officiating. Obituary will follow later.

Cruelty

Pekin, Ill., July 10—(AP)—Richard A. Hodgson charged in a divorce complaint that he was compelled to buy twin beds because of his wife's "cruel treatment." His complaint said his wife, Carrie, permitted her toe nails to grow long so she could scratch him.

President Takes Trip on River To Enjoy Week-End Cool Breeze

Washington, July 10—(AP)—Cool breezes of the Chesapeake bay lured President Roosevelt away from Washington's extreme heat today for a week-end "working cruise" aboard the presidential yacht Potomac.

Arranging a journey which would take him down the bay and up the Potomac on the return trip, the chief executive left the White House shortly before noon by motor for Annapolis to board the Potomac with a small official party.

Dishonored

Chicago, July 10—(AP)—Lorraine Hundreiser, nine-year-old victim of an assault and stabbing attack, fought for life today while authorities pondered what action to take against John Ardelean, 16, above, who police said confessed.

Dr. Harry Hoffman of the all behavior clinic described Ardelean as a "sexual psychopath with sadistic tendencies." Statements from teachers contradicted Ardelean's assertion that he was a star athlete and honor student at Senn high school.

The girl was found Thursday in a basement, ravished and with 33 wounds.

Assistant State's Attorney Leslie Curtis said he would seek to have Ardelean indicted Monday on a rape charge.

NO RELIEF FROM HEAT FORECAST BEFORE MONDAY

Local Thunderstorms Possible But Won't Cool The Air

Chicago, July 10—(AP)—Fatal heat seared the nation again today in the most protracted hot spell of 1937.

Government forecasters saw little chance for a break before Monday in the heat wave that was claimed at least 121 lives.

They predicted fair and continued warm weather today and tomorrow in the northern half of the country. Scattered thunderstorms were possible in some local areas but they said, these would not appreciably lower the temperatures.

While the mercury mounted into the nineties today, one community, Belle Fourche, S. D., got relief that boomeranged. A cloudburst between there and Aladdin, Wyo., drove 100 residents from their homes, flooded 50 basements and impaired electric power lines.

Highest Temperatures
The highest temperature reported during the past 24 hours was 104 at Oakes, N. D., while Napoleon and Wishek, N. D., each had 103.

Local showers gave temporary relief but residents of a large portion of the country sweated through a hot night.

Record-breaking heat gripped New York City for the third consecutive day when thermometers registered 96 yesterday.

Sixteen states and the District of Columbia, listed deaths from heat prostration, New York, 22; Michigan, 18; not including drownings. The toll in others included: Illinois 12; Iowa 3; Wisconsin and Indiana, 1 each.

FEAR SUICIDE

Los Angeles, July 10—(AP)—An attack of religious frenzy in which he sobbed over an open Bible led county jail guards today to guard against a suicide attempt by Albert Dyer, accused slayer of three Inglewood girls.

LABOR BOARD HEARS CHARGE AGAINST FORD

Detroit's Automotive Front Not Seething

Detroit, July 10—(AP)—The National Labor Relations Board hearing on charges of unfair labor practices against the Ford Motor Company was in recess today, but there was no other activity along Detroit's automotive front.

A sit-down strike closed a large factory manufacturing truck trailers, and the United Automobile Workers of America won sole collective bargaining rights in the steel plant where it called its first sit-down in Detroit.

Loren Hauser, U. A. W. A. organizer, said 500 employees of the Fruehauf Trailer Company sat down late yesterday after three weeks of negotiations with the management over a contract collapsed.

One of the Supreme Court's rulings upholding the Wagner labor relations act was handed down in a case appealed by the Fruehauf company.

The Labor Relations Board announced that 1,284 of 1,442 employees of the Midland Steel Products Company who voted in an election Thursday favored the U. A. W. A. as their bargaining agency.

The Ford hearing, during which a witness collapsed late yesterday, was adjourned until Monday. The witness was Ralph Dunham, who said an attack by four or five men while he was distributing U. A. W. A. handbills outside the Rouge Ford plant May 26 "had broken something loose in the pit of my stomach."

TENSION EASED
Cleveland, July 10—(AP)—Charges and counter-charges reverberated through the steel strike zones today as withdrawal of troops gave indications of lessening tension on the Ohio sector.

Some 300 National Guardsmen moved out of Akron, Ohio, as quietly as they had entered last Monday.

Earlier troop forces had been reduced at Canton, Warren and Youngstown. Guardsmen moved out of the strike centers were sent either to Cleveland, home of many of them, or to Camp Perry for training periods.

There has been no strike at Akron, but military officials said the men were held there because of its proximity to steel trouble spots.

Aroused spokesmen of the Committee for Industrial Organization and its affiliate, the Steel Workers Organizing committee, replied with stinging phrases to William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, who said in Washington, Thursday, that "stupor blunders" by the C. I. O. leadership had "lost" the steel strikes.

Dixon Mayor's Plea of Insufficient Funds Had No Weight With Commission

Council Votes To Improve Streets at Extra Cost

Members of the city council overrode Mayor William V. Slothower's attempt to reject all bids for the improvement of several blocks of streets in Dixon out of the gas tax fund at the session of the commission last evening, and after considerable discussion contracts were awarded for three projects. On the first street improvement project the four commissioners voted against rejection and readvertising for new bids. On the other two north side improvements, Commissioner George Campbell joined with Mayor Slothower in opposing the awarding of the contracts.

The discussion followed the presentation to the council by Mayor Slothower of a motion to reject all bids. In explaining his stand, Mayor Slothower stated that the total cost of the combined improvements in the bids submitted amounted to $25,793.38, the estimated cost being $21,663.45. At the present time, he informed the council, the city of Dixon has a credit in the motor fuel refund at Springfield amounting to $14,789.25. He estimated that an additional $5,800 might be available by September first, then called attention to the fact that the city is bound to pay $4,500 from this fund each year to retire bonds on the west end improvement.

Insufficient Funds
The mayor pointed out that the city is faced with the proposition of having insufficient funds to meet the bids, and he favored re-advertising at once with a hope of securing a lower figure for the several projects. He added that the public had been very patient in waiting for the improvement of the streets and that the council was anxious that the work be rushed to completion as early as possible.

Commissioner Cal Tyler informed the council that certain north-side streets, which were proposed for improvement, were a disgrace to the city and were in a distressing condition. He then asked the reason for the long delay in making the improvements, stating that the council took action last February and that nothing had been done until July.

Mayor Slothower replied that the bid for the East Chamberlain street improvement was about $1,000 over the estimate and that the McKinney street project bid was about $2,600 higher than the estimate. These he added, would not be approved by the state highway department at Springfield. He favored re-advertising at once for new bids on all of the projects with the hope of receiving lower bids which would warrant the proceeding with the improvements.

Legal Requirements
Replying to Commissioner Tyler's question as to the cause of the long delay, in which he stated that the public was entitled to know as well as the members of the council, the mayor explained that certain legal requirements delayed proceedings.

"I must admit that the city engineer took plenty of time in preparing the estimates before they could be forwarded to Springfield for approval," Mayor Slothower stated.

Commissioner Campbell then inquired of Mayor Slothower whether or not an error had been made in the specifications for one of the proposed improvements to which the mayor replied that an error amounting to about $549 had been made in one project on the north side group. He then told the council to vote as they desired on his motion, but expressed the opinion that lower figures would be submitted by advertising for new bids and the delay would not exceed ten days.

Commissioner Vaile told the council that north side residents had been patiently waiting for two years to have streets improved and repaired.

"This gas tax money belongs to the citizens of Dixon and not to the politicians at Springfield," he stated, "and the citizens of Dixon are entitled to it. By delaying action, the money will, as it has been in the past, be juggled around and eventually will be pushed into some campaign fund. There is no sense in punishing the citizens in order that someone else may cut the throat of a responsible and experienced contractor," Commissioner Vaile concluded in ap-

Honored

HON. JOHN P. DEVINE

Dixon man, whose long and honorable career as a member of the Illinois General Assembly, which culminated in his election to the Speakership, has been accorded a precedential honor—the unanimous passage of an appropriation to provide an oil portrait of him in the State House. Never before has a speaker of the Illinois House been so honored, and it bespeaks the esteem in which Mr. Devine is held by Illinois law makers, irrespective of party affiliation.

POLICE DECLARE FURCH, VICTIM HAD QUARRELED

Had Been Called To Quell Disturbance in Her Apartment

Chicago, July 10—(AP)—Four policemen, witnesses in the murder trial of Dr. Frank J. Furch, testified today they had been called on four different occasions to quell disturbances in the apartment of Mrs. Norma Schmidt, victim of the slaying.

These visits, they said, dated back almost a year previous to the killing of Mrs. Schmidt. Dr. Furch's second divorced wife, last Feb. 26, one officer said the doctor formerly a wealthy chiropractor, invited him to "stick around and watch me trim her." Another said Mrs. Schmidt told him the doctor as "striking and abusing her."

"We stayed in the apartment five or 10 minutes," Policeman Vincent Reilly testified. "When we left they appeared to be reconciled."

Girl Remarkable
Court attaches marvel at the memory for detail, shown in the testimony yesterday of Jacquelyn Schmidt, 11-year-old adopted daughter of Mrs. Schmidt, who gave a dramatic recital of the shooting to which she was an eyewitness.

The child told of hearing shots and said: "Mother ran past me and fell into an armchair." "Did you ever see her again?" "Yes, in the funeral parlor," replied Jacquelyn who also testified she called Dr. Furch "Daddy" and sent him a father's day card marked with "x's" for kisses.

Jacquelyn, motherless as a result of the tragedy, has been living at a placement bureau in Elgin.

Collector

Racine, Wis., July 10—(AP)—Frank Kraawaski, 59, had a club in one hand and a hatchet in the other when police brought him to the station for an accounting.

Frank explained to Municipal Judge E. R. Burgess that he had been out collecting bills. He was ordered to jail for 20 days to ponder less novel ways of persuading debtors.

Pekin Man Fatally Wounds Man in Whose Arms He Finds Spouse

Pekin, Ill., July 10—(AP)—Florence Burlingame, 20-year-old mother, died today of gunshot wounds. Police Chief Guy Donahue said she was inflicted Thursday by her husband, Hubert, 22, a distillery worker.

State's Attorney R. L. Russell said Burlingame, held in the county jail, would be charged with murder.

The husband wept when informed of Judge W. J. Reardon, his counsel, that his wife had died in Pekin hospital. He cried that he loved her but that she was "chasing around with other fellows and wouldn't take care of our child." The child is 3 years old.

Chief Donahue said Burlingame told him the shooting was an accident, as he planned only to give his wife "the scare of her life" when he found her in the arms of Virgil Boyer, 20, Green Valley, in the apartment of Grace Cline.

Mrs. Burlingame had been living with Miss Cline since separating from her husband six weeks ago. Boyer denied he had been keeping company with Mrs. Burlingame.

FOE OF COURT "PACK" DARES PARTY BOSSES

Challenges Them To Throw Him Out of Party

Washington, July 10—(AP)—Senator McCarran (D-Nev.) challenged the Democratic leadership today to throw him out of the party for opposing the Roosevelt court bill.

Carrying on the opposition attack against the compromise judicial reorganization bill in senate debate, the stolid Nevada senator said he did not believe that such a step was the intent of those in charge of the administration measure, but that if it were, he would "rather go down" than return to the senate.

He bluntly warned his party that the day "may come" when the three electoral votes from Nevada may be needed to "save the Democratic party."

McCarran opened the unusual Saturday session of the senate with a display of oratorical language de-

'Equally Wrong'

Washington, July 10—(AP) The United States Chamber of Commerce asserted today that the administration's substitute court reorganization plan "is no less objectionable than the original proposal."

"The principle involved is the same," the chamber said in its periodical "Washington Review." "The difference is merely numerical."

"It is wrong to pack the court with six new justices for particular purposes, it is equally wrong to pack the court with a lesser number of justices."

livered in a high-pitched voice, but with few gestures.

Foes Have 'Paper' Lead

The opposition group for which he spoke held a slim margin in the neck and neck race for publicity-committed senate votes. Forty senators have announced they will fight the administration compromise: 39 openly have pledged support.

McCarran stood, for his speech, in the same spot from which Senator Wheeler (D-Mont.) opened the opposition fight on the bill yesterday, just a few feet away from the Democratic leader Robinson, who sat listening intently, half turned around to face the Nevada senator.

Turning first from one side of the chamber to the other, McCarran contended that Senator Logan (D-Ky.) in a speech earlier in the week defending the bill, had intimated that opponents were trying to prevent Roosevelt from naming his successor.

Senator Lewis of Illinois, Democratic whip, interrupted at this point to ask if McCarran meant to suggest that "anyone has said that the president has a right to choose his own successor."

Used Logan's Words

McCarran said that he could reply only with the words of Logan, whom he had accused opponents of the bill of seeking to destroy the power of Roosevelt to choose his successor.

Senator Burke (D-Neb.) intervened to ask if McCarran was referring to a published quotation attributed to Logan that the opposition was based upon "a desire of conservative Democrats to break the power of the president so he would be unable to name his successor."

McCarran replied in the affirmative. Logan was not on the floor.

CONSERVATION BILL BECOMES ILLINOIS LAW

Creates State Board Districts To Stop Erosion Damage

Springfield, Ill., July 10.—(AP)—The federal government's soil conservation bill, the major piece of farm legislation passed by the 60th General Assembly, became law today with Governor Horner's signature.

Sent from Washington so that Illinois could co-operate in the federal soil conservation program, the law creates a state board and authorizes the formation of local districts to handle anti-erosion campaigns.

Before introduction, the bill was rewritten in Springfield to remove most of the federally-sponsored provisions requiring farmers to join in the soil saving work.

A penalty clause was inserted in late June by Senator Melvin Thomas, Charleston Democrat, specifying that farmers trying to block formation of districts be responsible for court costs.

Rep. Frank B. Wilson, Polo Democrat, sponsored the bill, which carried a $40,000 appropriation for the state soil conservation board, to consist of the director of agriculture, the agricultural extension director at the state university and three farmers.

Soil conservation districts can be formed with the consent of 75 per cent of the land owners under the new law. Federal officials wanted the figure to be 50 per cent, with the tenants permitted to vote.

RATEGAN BILL GETS HORNER'S SIGNATURE NOW

Springfield, Ill., July 10.—(AP)—The Rategan bill to keep money making out of not-for-profit corporations was signed by Governor Horner today. (H. B. 167.)

Drafted by A. C. Margrave, chief clerk of the secretary of state's corporation department, the new law restates the statute to limit the issuance of not-for-profit charters. Margrave said numerous "rackets" had tried to operate under the old law.

Among thirteen bills signed into law by the governor this morning was the Clifford measure (S. B. 429) to permit township park maintenance levies to be increased from one-third to two-thirds of a mill.

Other bills signed included: Connors—Requires soap in washrooms to be composed of "bland non-irritating detergents." (S. B. 15.)

Siebens—Validates municipal bond levies. (S. B. 18.) Ward—Permits county courts to continue cases between terms. (S. B. 64.)

Siebens—Provides for education of war orphans at schools other than state institutions. (S. B. 279.)

Burgess—Conveys Wayne county land to J. R. Warren. (S. B. 458.)

Adamowski—Strengthens enforcement of oil inspection act. (H. B. 719.)

France, Germany Sign Commercial, Financial Pact

Paris, July 10.—(AP)—France and Germany today signed a commercial and financial treaty to be effective for two years.

The agreement was signed at the foreign office by Foreign Minister Yvon Delbos and the German ambassador, Johannes Graf von Helldorf.

A French commerce ministry spokesman said the agreement wipes out one of Europe's most troublesome trade barriers.

Part of the accord already has become effective, with Germany relaxing its exchange restrictions to permit German tourists to bring about $4,632,000 to the Paris Exposition.

Marlene at Her Bath—Barred by Film 'Czar'

With trousers or soapuds, Marlene Dietrich manages to keep her noted legs pretty well out of the public view. But that, along with the help of censorship from the office of Will Hays, movie "czar," may be part of the secret of her fame. For instance, here is Marlene, neck-deep in lather in a scene from the film, "Knight Without Armor." Little of the legs are showing, but the Hays office disapproved, and not only cut much of the film sequence, but banned release of the stills by American distributors. This still came from London, where the movie was made. As for Marlene herself, the greatest inconvenience of it all was the bath itself, as rehearsals, takes and retakes stretched her soapy immersion out for hours.

Southern Minister Faces Carnal Charge

Monroe, La., July 10.—(AP)—District Attorney Frank J. Hawthorne said today that the Rev. George H. Dierlamm, West Monroe minister, was being held on a carnal knowledge charge after acknowledging intimate relations with a 15-year-old girl.

Sheriff Milton Coverdale announced simultaneously that he had arrested Oscar Turnley, 28, also of West Monroe, on a charge of attempted blackmail.

The sheriff said Turnley was engaged to the girl. He was charged with attempting to extort $200 from the Rev. Dierlamm on a threat to reveal the minister's asserted relations with the girl.

The clergyman, Hawthorne said, was taken into custody on a complaint sworn out by the girl's father.

Bonds had not been fixed for either the minister or Turnley, Sheriff Coverdale said.

Striking Waiters Rioted In Cafe At Opening Of Strike

Paris, July 10.—(AP)—Striking waiters and help hired to take their places fought a battle of fists in a Boulevard cafe today—one of a series of minor disorders at the start of a hotel, cafe and restaurant strike.

Pickets paced the streets, seeking to spread the walkout which was called in demand of an unconditional five-day week.

In the morning the strike was confined to the large cafes and hotels. Smaller establishments, staffed by families, did a rushing business in serving Parisians with their morning coffee and rolls.

Whooping Cough Is Fatal To Four Year Old Daughter

St. Louis, July 10.—(AP)—A fit of whooping cough was blamed today for the death of Carolyn, 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Biggs of suburban Kirkwood.

An autopsy disclosed the child had suffered a cerebral hemorrhage "probably induced" by a spell of coughing, medical examiners said.

THE SCALE OR A BID

When John L. Lewis began his campaign of organization, he informed the public in a manner that Mr. Roosevelt might hear, if he were listening in; that he had paid $500,000 toward the victory of Mr. Roosevelt at the polls and that he expected service.

Is $500,000 to be regarded as the union scale for purchase of the federal government and affiliated state governments? Or is it a bid, which may be raised from one campaign to another.

May the power of the government be purchased next time for $500,000, or is there an invitation to others to outbid? Will $600,000 bring action next time while the $500,000 bidder is left to curse his fate?

It all is rather puzzling.

FILIBUSTER.

Students of government believe the United States senate is the only legislative body on earth in which a member is permitted to obstruct a vote on a measure by holding the floor indefinitely. That is called a filibuster. A filibuster may be conducted by one man, as in the case of the late Huey Long of Louisiana; or it may be conducted by several men, or several teams of men.

The filibuster threatened in regard to the measure for packing the supreme court has elements of intense drama. In the beginning the president offered a court packing bill under the pretense of increasing the efficiency of the courts and making justice available to the poor. Opposition senators shot the executive's horse from under him by showing that the courts were not inefficient; that they were not overworked, and that if the measure were enacted into law, justice would be no speedier nor more available to the poor man.

Presently, when the situation was made plain to the public, it became apparent that Roosevelt did not command enough votes in the senate to enact the bill. So, after a great deal of maneuvering, an alleged compromise was offered. This compromise still would give the president power to pack the court, not all at once, but in eighteen months. A subterfuge upon a subterfuge.

Owing to the administration's vast power over spending and patronage, Roosevelt may command enough votes to make a law of this compromise.

But it can not become a law if it never comes to a vote in the senate. Hence the threat of a filibuster. Senators opposing the original proposal and the compromise have enough strength to stave off a rule limiting debate, and they are organized into teams among which speaking time will be apportioned.

The late Senator Huey Long of Louisiana conducted what has been called the longest one tongue filibuster. In June, 1935, the "Kingfish" went on a vocal rampage and held the floor continuously 15½ hours, unaided by clerks or quorum calls.

Robert M. LaFollette, the elder, in May, 1908, managed a marathon of 18 hours and 23 minutes. He had the advantage, however, of thirty-five quorum calls and the reading of records by clerks. After LaFollette halted, the blind Senator Gore of Oklahoma began speaking to continue the filibuster. When Gore stopped he was to be followed by another comrade, but unfortunately or otherwise, Gore was not able to see that the senator was not at hand. So the opposition broke up the debate.

Republicans in 1915 defeated by means of a filibuster a proposal that the United States buy interned German ships to build up an American merchant marine. Senator Reed Smoot of Utah began the performance by speaking 11 hours and 35 minutes, and was succeeded by others opposing the measure. All told, the filibuster lasted four days and nights. A few days later it was necessary for the opposition to carry on another filibuster against the same bill. In the second endurance contest Senator Jones of Washington talked 13 hours and 45 minutes, assisted at times by quorum calls and the reading of records. Eventually the bill was killed and the United States did not buy the ships we later seized as enemy property.

In 1914 republican senators scared democrats out of their intention to enact a pork barrel measure, saving the tax payers 40 million dollars. On this occasion Senator Theodore Burton of Ohio held the fort 12 hours.

It has been said that a filibuster fails or wins depending upon the popularity of the bill being blocked. In 1917 President Wilson caused introduction of a measure for arming merchant ships against German U-boats. The bill was popular throughout the country, but was opposed by Senator LaFollette, Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska and Senator Gronna of North Dakota. LaFollette started the affair and was relieved by Senator Norris that afternoon. When the dawn's early light broke over the capital, it illuminated the figure of Senator Gronna; he was reading the time-tested bible to a sleeping quorum.

The filibuster was fruitless, for it was discovered suddenly that President Wilson had power to arm merchant ships anyway, without an act of congress.

It was this filibuster that brought about creation of the famed cloture rule. It was decided that whenever sixteen senators present a petition asking that a debate be limited to one hour on any bill, or any amendments thereto, and that petition is approved by two thirds of the senate membership, cloture is in effect.

In the present instance it is not believed those sponsoring the compromise court measure have the numerical strength to invoke cloture.

Brain Twizzlers

By

PROF. J. D. FLINT

By PROF. J. D. FLINT

There seems to be a number of people in this world who are born clowns. This story is about a couple of them. The story comes from Twizzler Eisenbries and has a touch of psychology in the answer.

Two inseparable friends, Moe and Joe, were employed in an industrial plant as general utility men to take over any odd job that might arise. One day they were assigned the task of cleaning one of the fat, squat chimneys of the factory. The work progressed beautifully for about ten minutes and then Moe made a particularly clean sweep of things. He leaned too far and as he clutched Joe by the leg and yanked him off balance. Both of the men fell to the bottom of the stack and were bruised but not seriously hurt. Joe was very indignant and disgusted at Moe for pulling him down too and wouldn't speak a word to his friend. To add insult to injury Joe had gotten his face very dirty in the fall while Moe hadn't gotten his dirty at all. Joe promptly walked over to a bucket of water and washed his face. Moe did likewise and when he finished Joe had gone, probably to see the foreman about another job. The question is: Why did Moe wash his face if it wasn't dirty?

Answer to Yesterday's Twizzler

The pocketbook was dropped to lead the police to the footprints which apparently indicated suicide. The smaller man walked to the cliff with the shoes of the larger man in his hands. He then changed shoes and walked backwards, accounting for the deep heel prints of the small shoes and deep toe prints of the larger shoes. It also accounts for the shorter strides of the large shoes because the small man was walking backwards.

Answer to Question No. 3

3. No, because words never mean the same to any two people. Of course, you can give other people vague, hazy ideas of what you have in mind by words, but there is only one way by which you can tell another person exactly what you mean and that is by measurements. If you say a thing is ten feet long and three wide you both have exactly the same idea. But, for example, how could you tell a person who had never heard of electricity, what it is by mere words. Just try it. But you can tell him by saying it is that thing that moves at a certain speed, has a certain length of vibration, produces a certain amount of power, light, heat etc. Copyright, 1937, John F. As soon as the collapse of the estimates of income tax yield became apparent, the Treasury began trying to "save face" by hinting at evasion instead of admitting that the enthusiasm for the Act of 1936 had led the experts into indelible optimistic calculations.

We are now to have an old-fashioned "witch hunt" to expose these alleged evaders who upset the budget picture. The President's message on tax evasion has set the stage for this hunt, in which the quarry is to be his pet aversion, namely, the wealthy and well-to-do.

A sensational public investigation will of course be made, with names and full details for popular delectation. Its tone is already established by the message and the letter from Secretary Morgenthau which is a part of it. This tone is that any and every effort made to take advantage of legal provisions to reduce one's taxes is as immoral and unethical as outright violation of the law. The term "moral fraud" is used to describe these cases of legal tax avoidance, thus implying that when any one makes a lawful report of income in a way that reduces his tax, instead of reporting it so as to become liable for a greater tax, he is committing a moral fraud.

This contention is of course a red herring since as the President accused his opponents of preparing. If it is moral fraud to look about for ways to keep one's taxes down, then every person who considers the tax rate in selecting a community in which to live is guilty when he picks out one with a low rate. By this reasoning we are also guilty when we go to a 40 cent movie instead of buying $4.00 theater tickets, or when we pay less than $25.00 for a piece of jewelry instead of buying something more expensive that would be subject to a luxury tax.

In short, legal tax avoidance is not a question of morals at all. Both the President and Mr. Morgenthau realize this, and the writer is quite certain that neither of these gentlemen

Rust damage over Illinois is heavy

Washington, July 10.—(AP)—The agriculture department reported today "extensive rust damage to winter wheat in central Indiana, and central and northern Illinois."

Field observers for the department said crops in the southern parts of these states "matured without appreciable damage from the disease."

Rust was reported general on winter wheat in Iowa, southwestern Wisconsin and southern Minnesota "with some damage probable, particularly in late fields."

The survey said south winds on July 6 had scattered "heavy spore showers (of rust) throughout the spring wheat region so that the rapidity with which the rust spreads between now and harvest will depend upon weather conditions."

The department said rye would escape damage by stem rust this year while oats were "only lightly infected."

CANNOT GRANT COPS, FIREMEN MINIMUM WAGE

Horner Signs Boosts In Salaries, Vetoes Tax Levy Raise

Springfield, Ill., July 10.—(AP)—Mayors of several downstate cities protested in a telegram to Governor Horner today that they are financially unable to grant minimum salaries to policemen and firemen as provided in bills enacted into law recently.

Governor Horner permitted to become law without his signature the bills providing for the salary boosts but vetoed a companion measure permitting a raise in the corporate tax levy from 6 1/2 cents to 90 cents, because no referendum was required. The vetoed bill would have allowed a tax levy increase to $110 with referendum.

Following a conference yesterday, the mayors of Danville, Bloomington, Elgin, Galesburg, Quincy, Decatur, Aurora and Springfield sought to lay their troubles before Governor Horner, but he was unable to see them, owing to the stack of unread bills awaiting his consideration.

A. D. McLarty, secretary of the Illinois Municipal League, said the mayors suggested that the pay boost be recalled and vetoed. Whether this could be accomplished, if the governor desired, was a legal question.

Levies Near Maximum
McLarty contended that in cities which already had tax levies at or near the maximum, the only solution was to reduce the number of policemen and firemen on the city payrolls and give those remaining the maximum, or put them on a part time basis. This, he said, would result in increased burglary and fire insurance.

McLarty estimated the minimum salary requirements would result in the following additional annual expense to the protesting cities: Danville, $67,000; Bloomington, $41,000; Elgin, $34,000; Galesburg, $36,000; Quincy, $77,000; Decatur, $55,000; and Springfield, $90,000.

Other cities which joined in the protest telegram were Urbana, Belleville, Freeport, Joliet, Keokuk, LaSalle, Mattoon and Moline.

In his veto message, Governor Horner contended the communities had "adequate means" of increasing their tax levies through referendum.

Bringing Broadway Out Where the West Begins

Down in Fort Worth where the cattle graze and the oil rigs pound, the languor of soft southern nights and the glamour of dancing stars and singing madonnas have been the background for a bit of glittering Broadway. ## Give and Take

Washington, July 10.—(AP)—The treasury put into operation today a new give-and-take monetary agreement with China.

It provided that China would buy "a substantial amount" of this country's gold hoard, which aggregates $12-300,000,000. The treasury in return would buy more of China's silver.

A statement by Secretary Morgenthau and Dr. H. H. Kung, Chinese finance minister, said the accord would supplement an understanding effected in May, 1936. The United States agreed at that time to buy an undesignated amount of Chinese silver.

The two officials said the new agreement would give China additional gold reserves and a supply of American dollars in exchange for her silver. The gold and dollar exchange, they said, will be used for currency stabilizing purposes.

Morgenthau said the treasury followed its one-nation-at-a-time policy in drafting the accord. It does not affect the existing English-French-American monetary agreement, he said, except that increased co-operation between the United States and China will help strengthen all foreign exchange relationships.

SOVIETS ARREST THREE FOR CROP SABOTAGE PLOT

Moscow, July 10.—(AP)—The arrest of three heads of the agricultural department in the far eastern area for alleged conspiracy to sabotage crops there as aid to "Japanese conquest" of Russia was announced by the Khabarovsk (Siberia) newspaper Pacific Star which reached Moscow today.

The newspaper disclosed that a considerable part of the 1936 grain crop in the far east was lost under snow, while the 1937 crop plan was unfinished because of lack of machinery.

The Pacific Star said the three agricultural heads, named as Chernomoff, Khavkin and Vasilevitch, were "German-Japanese Fascist agents" who with others also arrested attempted to sabotage colonization of the far east at the instigation of Japanese intelligence officers.

"Having sold the Far East to Japan," the paper said, "these enemies aimed to prevent development by the Soviets in order to have all wealth untouched for their masters."

The newspaper alleges that one means of so-called sabotage was the refusal to order farm machinery, on the contention that the far east already had too many instruments, whereas in reality there was a shortage.

The 1936 harvest was delayed because of this lack, the paper continued, and winter caught a large portion of the crop.

War Clouds

Japanese Troops Are Invading Northern Chinese Cities

BULLETIN

Tientsin, July 10.—(AP)—Six trains carrying Japanese troops from Manchoukuo arrived tonight at Shanhaikwan, on the China-Manchoukuo frontier.

The troops detrained and went into temporary barracks at Shanhaikwan, where the Great Wall of China runs down to the sea.

Ordinary railway service northwest of Tientsin toward Shanhaikwan and Mukden has ceased. Railway and telephone communication between here and Peiping has been severed.

Japanese military commanded freight cars of the Peiping-Mukden railway at Tientsin East Station to transport war supplies to Fengtai, near Peiping, after Chinese railway authorities were slow to place cars at their disposal.

Peiping, July 10.—(AP)— High Chinese officials declared tonight that Japan had begun moving a portion of her powerful Manchurian army toward the North China trouble zone. They said 10 train loads of Japanese regular troops had left Mukden and two already had passed the Great Wall at Shanhaikwan.

Heavy fighting was resumed this afternoon in the area 10 miles west of Peiping, where Japanese and Chinese forces had been facing each other across the Yungting river.

Chinese officials declared the Japanese had attacked the walled village of Wanpinghsien about 5:30 P. M. By a truce agreement yesterday both sides withdrew from that village.

The Chinese said troops of their 29th army, which had evacuated the village yesterday, returned by crossing Marco Polo bridge when they saw the Japanese attacking.

At Shanhaikwan Japanese troops trains would pass into Chinese territory.

Troop Pour In
Other Chinese reports said troops of Japan's Manchurian garrison were pouring through all night passes of the Great Wall into northern Hebei province, above Peiping and Tientsin.

These reports were made public by officials of the Hebei-Chahar political council, highest Chinese authority in North China.

The reported movements from Manchuria made the outlook more ominous than at any time since 1933, when the Kwantung army swept into North China almost to the walls of Peiping.

The Hebei-Chahar council declared Japanese troops already in this area had moved back to the Marco Polo bridge-Wanpinghsien district, 10 miles west of Peiping, scene of recent conflict, and fighting had been resumed.

The Chinese declared the Japanese had broken the truce agreement reached yesterday and were encircling Wanpinghsien, held by Chinese, from the east.

"We are preparing for war," said one Chinese official, "for the Japanese have broken their promise to withdraw."

DAILY HEALTH

By Dr. Iago Galdston

CHANGE OF SCENE

In the days when the physician had fewer specific or near specific remedies wherewith to treat the disease conditions which can now be definitely diagnosed, his not uncommon prescription was "a change of scene."

Confessedly this was often a last-resort prescription. But even so, he was practicing good medicine in many instances. The most ancient of physicians knew the value of a change of scene, not alone in treating disease but also in health conservation.

Today the worth of this remedy is reaffirmed by the many medical specialties. The psychiatrist and the allergist, all agree that in many instances a change of scene is precisely what the patient needs to obtain a cure or escape complications. The relief which many find in sanatoriums and at the watering health resorts is without doubt largely attributable to the change in environment.

The long history of the various human groups called races, living in differing climatic regions, further illustrates the value of a change in scene. For in some regions the scenes change but little (as in the tropical belt) while in other regions (as in the northern climes) they change radically.

When the changes from season to season are marked, there we find the people generally of robust constitution and better health.

"For it is changes of all things that rouse the temper of man and prevent its stagnation. For uniformity engenders slackness, while variation fosters endurance, in both body and soul; rest and slackness are food for cowardice, endurance and exertion for bravery," wrote Hippocrates.

This consideration has many practical implications. One, however, deserves certain mention: the opportunity offered by one's vacation for a true and thorough change of scene.

So many of us are like the proverbial mailman who takes a walk on his holiday, and at that over his very route. Most of us would profit by a radical change, not only of the scene but of relation to the sedentary person; rest for the over-active; mental occupation of the long vista range for those goaded in their everyday life by the details of the moment, and play for those commonly burdened by the affairs of the world.

Monday—Civilization and Rhinitis

Boeing has now built a bomber even larger than the YB-17, sometimes called the "flying fortress." This new ship weighs 20 tons, is called the XB-15, is about the same size but has more comfortable living quarters for the crew.

According to University of California psychologists, bad driving is caused by improper food and hypnotic effect of long driving. This can be remedied by taking light meals at frequent intervals.

Passengers who are sailing west on North German Lloyd ships may now spend an extra day in Germany because of a new plan, recently inaugurated, that enables passengers to fly to the port of Cherbourg in time to meet the boat.

Homespun, earnest Bernard Wittenauer, Hubbard, O., employee of the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., is pictured above as he voluntarily appeared before the Senate Labor Committee and told members the plant's steel strike was voted by only 500 employees, but threw 15,000 out of work. He praised the company unions, said he had spent his last dollar to make the Washington trip.

STANDARD AUTO RACING HAS ITS GRUDGES ALSO

Rival Pilots' Attitudes Changed By Speed Craze

Standard automobile racing is beginning to have its grudges like almost every other branch of sports.

For many years rival pilots in the racing game have stood shoulder to shoulder, sharing the dangers of the hazardous profession and doing nothing that would increase the perils of their game.

The craze for speed now, however, has brought a deep change in their attitudes. New records, created in almost every race meeting, have brought about the money angle and the pilot who has the record is the man now sought by promoters to appear on his race card.

At the Chicago fair grounds next Sunday, July 18, Carl Stockholm hopes to capitalize on this condition by sending Jimmy Snyder, Chicago's most colorful racing driver into a match race with Rex Mays, California's high speed artist.

Snyder, rambling around the Indianapolis Speedway at a pace of 126 miles an hour for his qualifying trial for the Hoosier 500-mile classic, holds all world records for speedways, while Mays holds the world record for speed on a half mile dirt oval, created at the fair grounds, May 16.

Already Accepted
Snyder has already accepted terms for the race. Mays is still unresponsive to the Stockholm offers and the supporters of the two men are beginning to talk about the proposed race in betting terms.

Stockholm is not at all sure that Mays will accept the offer so is planning to make another offer for a match race involving Snyder. He is contacting Bob Sall of Newark, N. J., and Hal Cole of Los Angeles, winners of the two previous fair grounds feature events in an effort to sign a three cornered match with Snyder, in event Mays will not drive.

In the meantime, Stockholm is preparing the fair grounds track for the blistering speed he expects when the field of 30 or more pilots go into action next Sunday. The surface along the inside rail is being lowered one foot, while the outside surface is being raised to give a banked track on which the drivers may go at maximum speed all the way.

The meet has been sanctioned by the contest board of the A.A.A., governing body of all high class standard car racing in America, and Fred Willis, of the Chicago Motor club, zone supervisor for the contest board, has announced the appointment of Cliff Woodbury, veteran racing star, as official starter for the various events on the program.

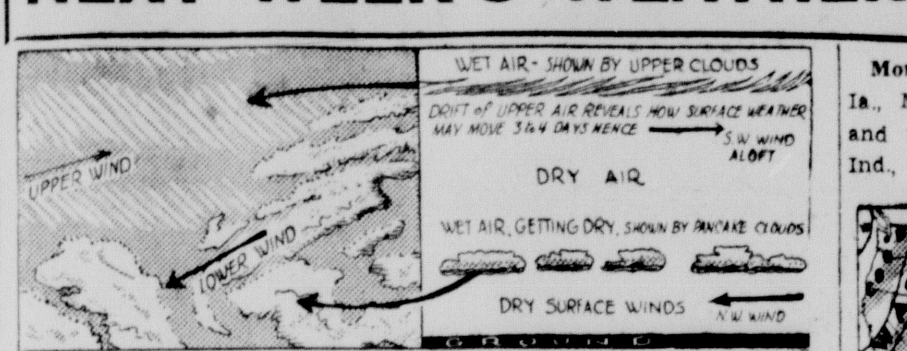

New gates and additional conveniences and comforts for patrons have been installed at the fair grounds and all confusion and congestion has been eliminated from the far west side racing plant.

During January and February of 1937, there was a total of 2,759,000 gallons of gasoline consumed. This was an increase of 102 per cent over the same months of 1936.

A new bus now being tested in Texas carries 33 passengers and is air-cooled. The cooling motor is mounted on the back.

In 1936, Maj. Ira C. Eaker flew across the country with the aid of his instruments.

NEXT WEEK'S WEATHER

FORETELLING WEATHER BY CLOUDS

The clouds in the upper air forecast what the weather down here on earth is going to be. When we see clouds in the upper air bearing from the south or southwest we may be quite sure that for three or four days the temperature on the ground is going to rise, and if the high clouds are thick and white we know that in addition the warm temperatures to come will be accompanied by rain. But if the clouds aloft are from the north and northwest, we know that it is soon to be cold, and if the high clouds show a tendency to fade out, leaving only clear blue sky, we know that the cold weather to come will be dry and that sunshine will be strong.

Weather is caused by movements of the air. These movements resemble tides in the ocean, that is, they are great currents or winds which blow north and south across the surface of the earth, often moving several thousand miles and these are the winds that affect temperatures. The air on the ground finds more friction and obstruction to its motion than the air aloft does. Forest, mountains, valleys, all tend to retard the wind and to slow down the movements of air masses. Higher aloft, that is, six or seven miles above the ground, at the base of the stratosphere, where the upper clouds occur, there is little or no friction from surface obstruction. Few mountains on earth extend this high, so upper winds have a clean sweep, and they show tidal movement of the air better than ground winds do. Winds aloft have a tendency to run ahead of winds on the ground, and so they lead weather changes, while surface winds and weather lag. Therefore, when we see a south wind blowing aloft, we may be sure that a thousand or fifteen hundred miles south of us the surface part of this same wind is blowing, and in three or four days it will work north over us, making warmer weather. When we see a north wind aloft, we know that up near the Arctic circle this same cold wind is down on the ground, and that in three or four days it will probably reach us. When the upper air is heavily

SELECTION OF GRID PLAYERS OPENS SUNLAY

College All-Star: To Play the Packers September 1

By Arch Ward
America's annual voting spree begins tomorrow. This is the opening day of the national poll that will determine the personnel of the college All-American football team for the game with the Green Bay Packers, world professional champions, at Soldier's field, Chicago, the night of September 1.

This year's contest will be the fourth in the all-star series. It is unique among sporting events, because it is the only enterprise in which the fans are in complete command. The customer will pick the starting players for the college team and a staff of cachers to lead them. This policy, inaugurated last year, was entirely satisfactory, both to the spectators and participants.

When the all-star intercollegiate baseball game was originated by this department the fans were permitted to name the teams. After the leagues took over the contest the following summer the customers gradually were relieved of this responsibility and this year they were eliminated altogether. But the all-star football game is in the hands of the fans and it will remain there as long as they continue to display interest in creating the show.

11,767,961 Votes Cast

Last year's player and coach poll drew the staggering total of 11,767,961 votes. Major interest, as usual, centered in the balloting for coaches, this phase of the promotion accounting for 8,348,797 votes. The Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc., again this year will have the co-operation of more than 50 newspapers in all parts of the United States. More newspapers work together to pick a representative team for the colleges than ever have been associated in any other sports enterprise.

There are no geographical restrictions in the all-star football poll. Any player who completed his period of collegiate eligibility last fall is eligible. It makes no difference to The Tribune whence the athletes come. If the fans want them, we shall present them, assuming that they are in position to accept election to the squad.

The eleven players, one at each position, who receive the greatest number of votes will start the game. If for any reason a player thus honored by the fan is unable to join the squad, he must next in line will be moved into the starting position.

Last year the eleven players picked in the poll started the game against the Detroit Lions. They were Wayne Miller, Notre Dame, and Keith Toppling, Stanford, ends; Dick Smith, Minnesota, and Truman Spain, Southern Methodist, tackles; Verne Oehl, Minnesota, and Paul Tanen, Northwestern, guards; Gomer Jones, Ohio State, center; Riley Smith, Alabama, quarterback; J. Berwanger, Chicago, and Bill Hakespeare, Notre Dame, half back; and Shelton Beise, Minnesota, full back.

The coaches chosen by the fans, all of whom accepted, were Bernie Bierman of Minnesota, Elmer Layden of Notre Dame, J. McMillin of Indiana, Lou Little of Columbia and Lynn Waldorf of Northwestern.

The player poll opening today will end on July 25, so you haven't much time to cast a vote for your favorite lineup. There is no set form for submitting your selections. Just get out a pencil, jot down the names of the eleven men you want to see face the Green Bay Packers and mail your selections to the All-Star Editor, Tribune Tower, Chicago.

Voting Begins July 25
The voting for coaches will begin on July 25 and end August 8. The squad will report at Northwestern university for training on August 14.

The previous three times of the all-star series resulted in two tie scores and one victory for the professionals. In 1934 the Chicago Bears were held to a scoreless tie before 80,000 spectators. The following year the Bears again representing the National Professional league, defeated the illegals, 5 to 0, and last year the Detroit Lions came from behind in the last quarter to tie the All-Stars, 7 to 7. The attendance at last year's contest, reduced somewhat by rain which forced a day's postponement, was 76,361.

Profits of the enterprise always have been divided equally among the United Catholic Charities and Jewish charities of Chicago. They collected $32,154 from last year's game.

Ticket orders now will be accepted.

HURLERS FACE NEW BARRAGE FROM HITTERS

Moundsman Hadn't Recovered From All-Star Tilt

By Sid Feder

Associated Press Sports Writer
The much-pummelled pitching fraternity still huddled in the storm cellars today, while baseball's war-club swingers shouted for more three-day layoffs and hotter heat waves.

Except for a slim few, notably Luke Hamlin, Jim Turner, and Joe Bowman of the National League, and Monte Pearson of the American, the shell-shocked pitchers were inquiring timidly if the war was over.

They'll probably be having nightmares for a month over the clubbing they took on yesterday's program. The three-day vacation caused by the All-Star game, as well as the heat that melted pitchers down like so many frying snowballs, made a hitting holiday out of virtually all yesterday's eight games and put the elbows generally in the dime-a-dozen class.

Leading this cannonading was the 12-11 decision the Boston Red Sox pulled out over the Athletics in 12 innings, with the two clubs piling up a total of 36 hits. But for plain and fancy flailing that knocked the ears off pitchers as fast as they served them up, the New York Yankees, Pittsburgh Pirates and (believe it or not) Brooklyn's do-or-die Dodgers took win, place and show.

DIMAGGIO Chief Slugger
Joe DiMaggio served as executioner No. 1 for the Yanks and smashed out a pair of homers, a triple, double and single as murderers' row ganged up on the Washington Senators for a 16-2 victory. Sharing the spotlight with Deadpan Joe was a free-for-all fist fight in the sixth inning, precipitated by a flurry of punch-tossing on the part of Yankee Jack Powell and Senator Joe Kuhel.

The Pirates, given effective fling support by Joe "Pop Fly" Bowman, climbed all over three Cubs' pitchers for a 13-1 win, with "Big Poison" Paul Waner doing the chief damage. This setback, however, didn't cut into the Cubs' two-game National league lead, since the second-place New York Giants also ran into particularly heavy weather. Their feuding partners the Dodgers, turned in the biggest single-club hit total, banging 20 safe blows all over the lot, and walloped the Giants, 15-2, as Rookie Hamlin hurled five-hit ball.

Probably the "sanest" game of the day was the Boston Bees' 5-0 victory over the Phillies, behind Rookie Jim Turner's five-hit white-wash hurling. Otherwise, the White Sox slugged the Browns 11-7, the Tigers trampled the Cleveland Indians 10-8, and the Cardinals conquered the Reds, 8-7, in a battle of homers.

LABOR ATHLETIC CARNIVAL WILL BE GREAT MEET

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
New York, July 10—(AP)—A track meet which began as a failure last year has every prospect of becoming a howling success when the return engagement of the world labor athletic carnival is held at the Randall's Island Stadium tomorrow.

The meet was inaugurated last year when the battle over whether the United States should send a team to the Berlin Olympics was at its height. It was hoped to attract a number of stars away from the Olympic team. There's no record, however, of anyone giving up the Berlin trip to run at Randall's Island. It turned out to be just a lively meet among the boys who couldn't go away. As a counter attraction it was a complete flop.

Tomorrow, with no Olympic competition, the pick of America's track and field stars are listed to run and jump in 11 invitation events. A special East vs. West mile relay, aimed directly at a new world record, a flock of A. A. U. handicap and events closed to members of labor unions round out the program. Top events are the mile, in which the famous Kansans, Glenn Cunningham and Archie San Romani, are slated to resume their rivalry with John Woodruff, lanky University of Pittsburgh Negro, who won the Olympic 800-meters title last year, as the dark horse in the field.

The flying schedule from Chicago to New York requires 3 hours 55 minutes; from New York to Miami, 7 hours 45 minutes; from Los Angeles to New York overnight, 14 hours 45 minutes.

Unbeaten

Newport, R. I., July 10—(AP)—The only unbeaten sloop of her class in the world, Harold S. Vanderbilt's Ranger, was favored today to retain that standing when she meets T. O. M. Sopwith's second British challenger for the America's Cup off here July 31.

Only today's meeting with Chandler Hovey's Rainbow and Gerard B. Lambert's Yankee stood between her and the date she will be called upon to guard a cup emblematic of Yankee rule of yachting since 1851, when the schooner yacht America brought it home from England.

Since Ranger already has won eleven straight races from her two unsuccessful rivals for the defense nomination, there was little reason to suppose she would not make it an even dozen. By virtue of her three victories in the current series of four races for a cup offered by George Nichols, former Commodore of New York Yacht Club, there was little doubt she would stow it in her locker this evening. The series will be decided on points.

cepted by mail. While there are indications of unprecedented demand there will be no increase in prices. The better locations will be $3.30. Seats in other sections will sell for $2.20 and $1.10. Address applications to Football Ticket Manager, Tribune Tower, Chicago. Checks should be made payable to Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc.

The Packers will begin training on August 14, the same day as the collegians. Coach Curley Lambeau had not selected a site for their camp. Fans throughout the state of Wisconsin are planning to give the Packers as much vocal support the night of the game as usual develops for the all-stars. Lee Joannes, president of the Packers corporation, predicts that more than 20,000 Wisconsin fans will be at Soldier's field the night of September 1.

Playground Picnic Marks First Month Of Worthy Program

Much fun was enjoyed by children attending the playground picnic at Lowell park Friday.

Activities included swimming, horseshoes, baseball, stories and games. The park commission and staff members wish to thank Hal Roberts, George Nettz and J. L. Glassburn for graciously furnishing transportation to the park for the children.

Each Friday will be an outing day for children who desire to go. The playgrounds will be open to those not wishing to go. The playgrounds have been in session one month with a total of 2,243 children participating in their activities. All children are welcome and will be taken care of by expert supervisors.

Walnut Tournament Opens Busy Summer For Plum Hollow

Plum Hollow had Walnut will inaugurate a busy golf season at the former course tomorrow with a dual match in which Caretaker Ted Talty of Plum Hollow is urging all members and green fee patrons of the local course to turn out en masse.

The event precedes by one Sunday the first 18 holes of the city midsummer open golf championship tournament sponsored by the Dixon Evening Telegraph which begins at Plum Hollow, Sunday, July 18.

Walnut is bringing a strong aggregation of divot diggers here tomorrow headed by Livey, a consistently par shooting golfer. He has parred Plum Hollow's links with 66's several times in the past.

JUNIOR LEGION BASEBALL BOYS BEAT STERLING

Dixon Junior Legion baseball boys again defeated Sterling 11 to 2 at Reynolds field Friday evening. Pitchers Cox and Curley limiting the Whiteside county team to two lone hits, one in the third and one in the sixth innings.

Dixon's big inning came in the sixth when the locals blasted home five hits and five runs. Both of Sterling's hits produced runs. A meeting of all team captains and managers at E. N. Bower's office over the Manhattan Cafe has been called for 1:30 P. M. Sunday it was announced today, for the purpose of rearranging the schedules.

COTTON RATES PLACE IN GOLF HALLS OF FAME

Shoots Most Brilliant Game in Downpour at Carnoustie

Carnoustie, Scotland, July 10—(AP)—Henry Cotton, the man nobody even pretends to know, is ready now to take his place alongside Harry Vardon, Walter Hagen and Bobby Jones among golf's immortals.

It has been suspected for several years that silent Henry belonged in that select circle. He left no further doubt about it when he shot that final 71 in a pouring rain yesterday to win his second British open in four years.

Reg Whitcome, the man he beat in that closing burst of pure brilliance, said: "That probably was the greatest round of golf ever shot under similar circumstances."

Trimmed Entire Team
When he won in 1934 with a succession of sub-par rounds that made everybody dizzy, Cotton had only two American stars to beat, Gene Sarazen and Denny Shute. This time he has trimmed the entire American Ryder Cup team. He made it so conclusive it wasn't even close.

Cotton's total of 290 over the kind of course Carnoustie has been the past three days was the sort of miracle you couldn't appreciate unless you had tramped around Carnoustie with rain pouring down your neck. Yesterday it took two powerful blows to reach most of its waterlogged greens. Veterans like Walter Hagen, Ed Dudley and Bobby Cruickshank found themselves short hole after hole.

Caught Up?

Filmland's "Phantom of the Fairways" a Criminal?

Los Angeles, July 10—(AP)—Filmland's "Phantom of the Fairways," his mask of mystery striped away, ruefully pondered "one foolish mistake" today while he waited in a jail cell for New York authorities to serve extradition papers to take him back east for trial as a bandit.

District Attorney Thomas W. MacDonald of Essex County, N. Y., announced there that he would push proceedings to extradite John Montague, called the mystery man of golf, on charges he participated in a roadhouse holdup near Jay, N. Y., in 1930.

The warrant charged that Montague who police said admitted his real name was La Verne Moore, and two other men held up patrons and proprietors of the roadhouse, slugged one, and escaped with $700.

Two of the gunmen were captured, MacDonald said. One, William Carleton, is serving a 15-year term the other, Roger Norton, served a two-to-four year term.

Montague's legion of friends in the film colony greeted news of his arrest with silence.

George Clark, his personal friend, golf companion and attorney, initiated an appeal would be made to Governor Frank P. Merriam to refuse to sign extradition papers.

"Montague has proven to us that he is a fine man and a fine sportsman," Clark said. "He has led a clean, straightforward life out here."

George von Elm, former national amateur champion, has repeatedly proclaimed Montague the "best golfer in the world," with a tremendous drive and uncanny putting ability.

Covert-Quick Net Title Match Will Decide Cup Winner

Howard Quick, bidding for Ted Wallin's Dixon singles tennis championship, will meet George Covert for the coveted honor Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock on the high school courts. They are the only survivors of an original field of 26.

The final match will consist of three sets out of five and will be refereed by Robert Gross, Charles Roscoe and Fred Chiverton. It is hoped a large gallery of tennis fans will be present to witness this final match of the Telegraph-sponsored city singles tennis tournament the winner of which will be presented a silver loving cup by the Telegraph, and the runnerup a fine Wilson two fold racquet press with thumb screws and waterproof racquet cover donated by the Ace store. The prizes will be presented immediately following the match.

Quick won his way to the finals by defeating Alan Weinman, Charlie Ross and Garland Sinow. Covert downed Bob Preston, Cliff Flanagan, Bill Rusk and Cliff Smith. The tournament began a month ago.

Feature Races to End Cleveland Meet

Cleveland, July 10—(AP)—Two stake races, the $2,500 Judson Trophy race and the $1,000 Cleveland Handicap mile and a quarter dash for trotters, featured the final program today of the Grand Circuit meeting at North Randall track.

Nine entries were listed for the richer Judson pace with chief lay given to Helen Strong, Lew Hay, Stoneridge Direct, Marty Clare and McAllister.

Angel Child drew the heaviest of 109 feet in the trot dash, with Calumet Epsom rated at 80 feet. Ed Lasater only horse to defeat last year's Hambletonian winner, Rosalind, was set back at 60 feet. Three entries were started from a handicap of 30 feet and one from scratch.

Vic Fleming yesterday drove four winners, to tie a 35-year-old Cleveland record for big-time driv-

MEDWICK, GEHRIG BOOST AVERAGES IN BOTH LEAGUES

Followed Closely By Waner, Walker And DiMaggio Though

New York, July 10—(AP)—Ducky Medwick and Lou Gehrig boosted their respective league-leading batting averages this week, but the opposition continued to close in on them.

Paul Waner of the Pirates batted an even 500 for the week to boost his average nine points to .394 in second place in the National league thereby trailing Medwick's .409 by only 15 points. That is the closest any batter has come to the Cardinal better in weeks.

Gehrig hit 9-for-19 during the week to climb to .378 at the head of the American league parade, but his Yankee teammate, Joe DiMaggio, stole the loop show. Deadpan Joe clubbed out 12 hits in 18 chances to climb 23 points to .359, and march into third place, after being eighth last week.

Rip Radcliff, of the White Sox, also turned on the heat during the seven-day span ended with yesterday's games, getting 15 hits in 29 chances for a .349 season average, an increase of 22 points.

Standings of the 10 leading batters in each league:

Motion was made by Supervisor Becker, seconded by Supervisor Hemenway, that the County Treasurer be directed to receive the sum of $500.00 and place it in the County General Fund.
Supervisor Buckingham reported to the Board that he has the sum of $1072.95 and $400.00 in his hands and would like to procure an order from the County Clerk to turn said amounts over to the County Treasurer to place in the County General Fund. On motion of Supervisor Rissetter, seconded by Supervisor Mehlihausen, Supervisor Buckingham is to procure said order from the County Clerk directing the County Treasurer to receive the sum of $1072.95 and the sum of $400.00 and place said amounts in the County General Fund.

Supervisor Mehlihausen reported to the Board that he has the sum of $500.00 in his possession which he would like to turn over to the County General Fund. On motion of Supervisor Emmitt, seconded by Supervisor Wolf, Supervisor Mehlihausen is to procure an order from the County Clerk directing the County Treasurer to receive said amount and place it in the County General Fund.
On motion of Supervisor Hart, seconded by Supervisor Knecht, the Board adjourned until two o'clock this afternoon.
At the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon the Board of Supervisors reconvened pursuant to adjournment. Present Honorable Chairman Ramsdell and all members of the Board except Supervisor Garrison. The following petition, signed by the Janitors of the Court House, was presented to the Board and read by the Clerk.
TO THE HONORABLE CHAIRMAN AND LEE COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS:
Gentlemen:
We, the undersigned Janitors for the Lee County Court House beg leave to petition your Honorable Board for an increase in wages.
In June 1932, we as Janitors were asked to cooperate and take a reduction of $20.00 per month, which we did. In June 1935, your Honorable Board granted us a raise of $10.00 per month. Conditions have so changed and living expenses increased to the extent that we feel justified in asking the Honorable Board for the restoration of our original wages which is from $90.00 per month we are now getting to $100.00 per month, the amount received before asking us to take a reduction.
Respectfully Yours,
Fred Whippman, D. C. Beighel, Lee County Court House Janitors
On motion of Supervisor Mau, seconded by Supervisor Anderson, the foregoing petition is referred to the Fees and Salaries Committee to report at this meeting of the County Board.
The following petition, signed by the County Superintendent of Schools, L. W. Miller, requesting that an increase be made in the salary paid Mrs. Read, assistant in the office of the County Superintendent of Schools, was presented to the Board and read by the Clerk.
To the Educational Committee, Lee County Board of Supervisors: Annually, at the June meeting of the Board of Supervisors, an appropriation is made to cover the salary to be paid to the assistant in the office of the County Superintendent of Schools, for the year beginning July 1, following.
Some years ago, owing to the depression, the Board of Supervisors ordered a new schedule for salaries, on a basis of a maximum reduction of 20 per cent, except in the case of Mrs. Read, office assistant to the County Superintendent of Schools, where the reduction was 33 1-3 per cent. Up to that time, this salary had been $100.00 annually, or $108.33 per month. The new schedule called for a salary of $86.00 annually, or $72.00 per month. Later, this was increased to $90.00 annually, or $80.00 per month, since which time no change has been made.
The detail work of this office has so increased that the time required to complete necessary data occupies much of time when other offices are closed.
The State Department now requires that all statistical information heretofore compiled by the township treasurers for their annual reports, shall be furnished by this office. All educational and building funds for the 166 school districts of the county must be reported separately. The State Distributive Fund budget for each school district is now prepared in this office instead of by the clerks of the districts, as formerly, to the end that the taxpayer's dollar may be conserved. The State Distributive Fund is now apportioned each month, twelve times per year, instead of once a year as formerly, thus entailing the detail of figures each month.
For the past year and a half, this office has felt it incumbent upon us to comply with the request of the State office in assisting, when so requested, the WPA project, appointees of the administration. Excellent types of people, without exception, have been assigned to this office, but much of time has been consumed in aiding them, to meet their needs and requirements.
In view of improved economic conditions, and the increased need for salary restorations, we would respectfully request that the Educational Committee consider the matter of recommending such increases in the appropriation for Mrs. Read's salary as would be consistent with the duties performed, and in equitable proportion to the salaries paid the other assistants in the various county offices herein the Court House.
L. W. MILLER, On motion of Supervisor Knecht, seconded by Supervisor Knecht, the foregoing petition and request is referred to the Fees and Salaries Committee to bring in a report at this meeting.
The Educational Committee present their report recommending the allowance of the following claims, and on motion of Supervisor Knecht, seconded by Supervisor Rissetter, the report is received, approved, and the Clerk is directed to issue orders for the various amounts as follows:

Item of Interest The following item was taken from a West Chicago paper and will be of interest to the people of this community, as Engineer Truman Nail is a former resident of this place.

"Old steam locomotive men, most of whom look down their noses coldly at the sleek streamline trains laughed up their sleeves last week when an engine out of the round house here, piloted by a West Chicago engineer, hooked onto a disabled streamline train here Wednesday evening and snaked the long heavy drag out to Linton—108 miles—in the near record time of 99 minutes. The handsome cream colored train limped into the station here unable to proceed under its own power any further. A hurry call was sent out for Engineer Truman Nail and engine No. 1594 was hooked in front of the disabled train. From a standing start just 99 minutes elapsed until the train steamed into the Clinton station. The engine made the streamliners' time from Geneva through to the Iowa division point. Engineer Nail was warmly congratulated on his fine run."

He died Sunday afternoon at the Moline City hospital of injuries sustained in an accident near Silvis, in which he and others were injured, while enroute to Nicholas, Ia., to visit over the week-end. James Zittle, 18, of Oregon, was driving the car, which plunged down a steep embankment about four miles east of Silvis.

Harold Trenholm and family of Oregon and Harry were passengers in the car. At the inquest conducted at Moline, Sunday, the jury returned a verdict that Mr. Roop met an accidental death due to reckless driving.

The deceased was employed as caretaker at the Dr. Z. W. Moss estate. He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Ethel Wolfe of Chicago; two brothers, Walter of Dixon and Arthur of Milton, S. D.; two sisters, Mrs. Fred Maringer of Oregon and Mrs. Thomas Clinger of Baltimore, Md.

ram Johnson. The Californian indignantly rejected the overture and the nomination went to Calvin Coolidge. Two years later Coolidge was in the White House.

McNary first attracted national attention in the early 20's with his famed McNary-Haugen farm relief bill. Twice passed by Congress, it was twice vetoed, once by Coolidge on the advice of Hoover, and once by Hoover personally.

When Senator Jim Watson, Indiana's veteran G. O. P. floor leader, was defeated in the Democratic landslide in 1932, McNary was the unchallenged choice as his successor.

"Charley Mac" Among his intimates, McNary is known affectionately as "Charley Mac." In Washington, he and Mrs. McNary live quietly and simply with their two-year-old adopted daughter Charlotte, whom McNary idolizes. He keeps a tiny hobby-horse in his office to entertain her when she visits him.

He works hard at his job and goes about very little socially. His chief recreation is golf, which he shoots in the eighties.

In Oregon Charley lives on the old farm where he was born. It is five miles from Salem and consists of 200 acres on which he raises filbert nuts, prunes and fruit. He had a very profitable hop field, but abandoned it during prohibition.

When on his farm McNary usually has a large pot of baked beans cooking over a log fireplace. The dish is his favorite food and he insists on doing his own cooking, even using a recipe of his own concoction.

In addition to his nut and fruit trees, McNary has several acres of flowers. He spends much time experimenting and has developed some original varieties. A unique feature of McNary's farm is his own wild fowl refuge.

While making no pretense of erudition, McNary reads extensively and has a large library both in Washington and in Oregon. He prefers biography but has studied economic and financial questions in recent years, particularly as they affect agriculture. Before becoming floor leader he was chairman of the Senate Agricultural Committee.

McNary also is fond of poetry and keeps a scrap book of favorite poems.

The late Senator Jim Couzens of Michigan was a great admirer of McNary, and in the spring of 1936 urged him to seek the G. O. P. nomination. Couzens even offered to contribute $100,000 to his campaign.

"But I don't come from the right part of the country," McNary said. "Maybe not," admitted Couzens, "but Charley, if the party has any chance this year, you are its only hope."

McNary laughingly said he wasn't interested and quoted the following rhyme:

"The presidential bee is a deadly bug I've seen it work on others. Oh, Lord, protect me from its hug. And let it sting my brothers." (Copyright, 1937, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

Trade Review

New York, July 10—(AP)—Most divisions of retail trade hit a faster pace this week Dun & Bradstreet reported Friday.

Hot weather needs and the attraction of price inducements helped spur sales, the survey said.

Stressing the retail turnover of seasonal goods, the Review said, "none of the leading centers of distribution failed to surpass their totals of the week preceding. As the buying pace at some of these was the most accelerated since early spring, the increase varied from 3 to 8 per cent."

"Buoyed by well-attended trade shows in several principal markets, most branches of the wholesale trade shifted to higher gear this week."

"With current expansion of consumer purchases dispelling anxiety regarding season-end carry-overs, some retailers have set fall budgets up 10 to 15 per cent from last year's."

"At most of the leading shoe-manufacturing centers operations increased. Still struggling with heavy backlogs, hardware plants in some sections were hampered by shortage of skilled labor. Strongest demands for lumber was from the furniture industry."

Germany, Sweden, and the United States produce huge quantities of "potato alcohol."

Said motion now coming on for a vote of the various members of the Board, the Clerk proceeded to call the roll which resulted as follows:

Those voting Aye: Supervisors Hemenway, Buckingham, Wagner, Vaupel, Archer, Spencer, Gehant, Rose, Stanley, Garrison, Wilson, Anderson, Mau, Kravov, Willis, Lally, Becker, Wolf, Emmitt, Hart, Mehlihausen, Cortright, Kuebel, Montavon, Risetter and Knetsch—26.

The Road and Bridge Committee and the Finance Committee present their report relative to the Binghampton bridge, which said report and recommendations are in the words and figures following:

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION OF Road and Bridge and Finance Committees on the Binghampton Bridge Located East of Amboy, Illinois.

To the Honorable Chairman and Members of the Lee County Board of Supervisors:

Gentlemen:

Your Road and Bridge Committee and Finance Committee, to whom was referred the matter of the construction of the Binghampton bridge east of Amboy, Illinois, beg leave to make the following report and recommendation:

We have inspected the bridge and would recommend that the County Superintendent of Highways be instructed to erect suitable signs (3 ton limit load) at either ends of the bridge illuminating in such a way that the same shall be visible after dark and said lights of such signs shall be continued until such time that the finances of the county are such that a new structure can be built.

John S. Archer,
Henry L. Gehant,
Harvey O. Risetter,
Road and Bridge Comm.

L. D. Hemenway, Chm.

On motion of Supervisor Wolf, the recommendation of the Judiciary Committee is concurred therein by the Board.

Supervisor Hemenway, Chairman of the Finance Committee, spoke before the Board relative to the finances of Lee County, and in aiding townships for bridge or culvert repairs, stating that at this time it was impossible for the county to aid the townships and further stating that a better cooperation between the Supervisors and the Highway Commissioner in regard to repairs and improvements would help to relieve the situation at this time.

County Superintendent of Highways Fred W. Leake, spoke before the board relative to the widening of the Lincoln Highway and the purchase of right-of-way for same, at the request of the State Highway Department, for a distance of some three and a half miles in Dixon and Natchua townships. Considerable discussion was entered into by several members of the Board as well as the Supervisors of Dixon and Natchua Townships.

Motion was made by Supervisor Wolf, seconded by Supervisor Spencer, that in their opinion the Right of Way for the Lincoln Highway is sufficient, but if the State wants additional right-of-way, let the State purchase it.

The claim of Whiteside County for delivery of Federal Food Commodities for the month of May, 1937, in the amount of $34.36 was read to the board by the Clerk, and on motion of Supervisor Spencer, seconded by Supervisor Stanley, said claim is allowed as read, and the Clerk is directed to issue an order for the said amount.

When the tragic Hindenburg burned, Germany did not falter in its faith in lighter-than-air craft, improved by this "nose-on" pic-

 Larger than the Hindenburg, the LZ-130 is rapidly nearing com-

Governor Approves Fund for Picture of John Devine

Springfield, Ill., July 10—(AP)—
 The legislative bills being signed by Governor Horner have been given an automobile ride in the Illinois countryside before being placed in the confines of the state's archives.
 The governor works on the bills in his State House office. Before they can be placed on his desk, they must also be signed by the presiding officers of both Houses.
 Because Lieut. Gov. John Stille has been at the McLeansboro home since the 60th General Assembly adjourned last week, the bills have been bundled into an automobile from time to time and been taken there for his signature.
 Speaker Louie E. Lewis spent most of the post-legislative bill signing period in Springfield, but some of the bills also saw the light of day and the Speaker's pen at his southern Illinois home, Christopher.

The last of the bills reached Horner's desk yesterday, after going through the enrolling and engrossing process and the ride to McLeansboro. It was a bill making two years separation grounds for divorce, a companion measure to the recently signed Graham "gin marriage" law requiring three days notice of intent to wed.
 The governor was near the end of his big and hurried job, considering the last of the bills could be turned over to Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes by Monday night, there to be recorded as a part of the state's law or as being killed by veto.

Boys and girls under 15 years are forbidden to drive automobiles under one of the new laws, signed yesterday. In the past they could drive if accompanied by parent or guardian.

For portraits of former Lieut.
 Gov. Thomas F. Donovan and former Speaker John P. Devine, the governor approved a $1,000 appropriation.

FORMER DIXON
MAN REWARDED
BY HIS CHURCH

Rev. and Mrs. C. R.
Stauffer Given Trip Abroad

Last October, in Kansas City, Mo., the international convention of the Disciples of Christ elected Rev. and Mrs. C. R. Stauffer as the fraternal delegates from the American churches to the British conference of the Disciples of Christ, which will be held in Glasgow, Scotland, August 2-5. Rev.
 Stauffer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stauffer, 215 Lincoln
 Way of this city.

They left Atlanta, Ga., where they preside over the activities of the First Christian church, Tuesday morning enroute to New York, they stopped over a day in Washington, D. C., where they were tendered a complimentary dinner
 by the congregation of the Ninth Street Christian church, where they served for several years. They sailed today, July 10, at noon on the "Georgic" from New York.

For two weeks before the conference Rev. Stauffer will go on a preaching tour of the leading cities of the British Isles, preaching at London, Leicester, Birmingham,
 Nottingham, Leeds, Manchester, Chester, Liverpool, Wigan, Newcastle and Glasgow. Mrs. Stauffer will accompany her husband and conduct a number of conferences among the women. After visiting the conference where they will speak several times, Mr. and Mrs.
 Stauffer will travel through England and France, visiting Paris and Avignon, embarking at Marseilles, France, on August 14 for a Mediterranean tour.

They will visit the Holy Land and other points of interest such as Genoa, Naples, Rome, Alexandria, Cairo, Egypt; Damascus, Ba-albek, Beirut and Athens. The Mediterranean trip and the trip to the Holy Land is a gift of their tian church of Atlanta, Ga., with the assistance of the leading citizens of that city. They will return to Atlanta for Sunday, September 19, when they will celebrate the 12th anniversary of their ministry with the First Christian church. During these years, over 1,500 persons have been added to the church, the membership grow-

IT TOOK A CROWBAR TO GET HIM OUT

Smoking tires screeched as the wheels locked, spectators screamed, the racing car crashed into a fence on the south turn of the tricky Atlanta track and turned over, pinning the driver down so firmly that the rescuer's attempts to release him, as shown in the above picture, were unavailing. The driver, Eddie Elze, who also wrestled, was found to have a broken right leg when he was finally pried out with a crowbar.

Legion News

Commander E. N. Bowers of American Legion Post No. 12 reminded local members that the state department convention will be held in Springfield, August 28, 29, 30 and 31. The national convention will be in New York late in September.

Steamship lines are offering attractively reduced rates for overseas tours which will be taken advantage of by many Legionaires this summer. The tours will be conducted from the national convention.

Post No. 12's weekly junior Legion baseball schedule has been altered, Commander Bowers said this morning. Games will be played each week on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays, instead of commencing on Tuesday and continuing through Thursdays.

Twenty-six delegates attended the 13th district Legion convention over the Fourth of July at Savanna, and the local junior drum and bugle corps is said to have made a prize-winning showing. Towns bidding for the 1938 district convention are Freeport and Fulton.

 The former city has asked Dixon business men for recommendation letters in its effort to obtain permission from state Legion officials for the convention at that point.

At the district convention, Post
 No. 12 presented a resolution providing that the state employ text books for all elementary grade school students as many parents are unable to buy them for their children owing to financial reasons.

 CAROLEE COLTER, heroine, Stuart's daughter.
 STUART BLAKE, eastern
 "duke" tourist, Carolee's lover.
 HEAVY COLTER, prospector, Stuart's son.
 PAUL AND SILAS COLTER,
 prospectors' sons.
 NINA BLAKE, Stuart's sister.

Yesterday the Colters resume their search for gold and near the site of Paul's death find rich ore in a cave. Immediately they establish their claim to the property.

CHAPTER XV
 THE few rocks that Paul Colter had clutched in death, and the others that Carolee had found in the cave, proved to be as exciting to the assayer as to the Colters themselves.

"This stuff'll go thousands of dollars a ton, man!" they told Mr.
 Colter in the Golden West Assay
 Office at Phoenix. "Where'd you get it?"

"I got it staked in Superstition," he replied. "But this is all I could find." He didn't mention his son's death, but he did explain about the cave.

"Oh, that's different, then."
 They were let down somewhat.
 "You just found a drizzle. Some of that stuff the old Spaniards left up here. Old Miguel Peralta's crew. He worked Superstition.
 They'd pick up just the best ore to pack back down to Sonora. It was 300-odd miles. They wouldn't carry no more dirt than necessary.
 They'd store their choicest pickin's in a cave like that'n until they got enough to load their mules, then they'd high-tail 'em back home with it. Likely you found some you put in there and overlooked. It's been done before.
 Down where they worked the Virgin of Guadalupe Mine, near Tu-bac, they done that same thing.
 We've found their leavings."

"That's all right, then,"
 they were let down somewhat.
